

Justyna Fornalik

13 July 1992

Self Definition

I am a creative, driven person who believes that hard work combined with passion and dedication is a key to success. That is why I am not afraid of new technologies and challenges.

Mentor Opinion

"Justyna is a person who tries to find her place and do what gives her joy. She's not afraid to leave some things behind to learn new technologies if she can become a better programmer and a better fit for a market."

— Konrad Gadzina, Mentor

Main Interests

I have made several Java and Python projects. I'm currently learning JavaScript then planning to learn React. My final goal is to become a full stack developer. I would like to cooperate with a company where I will be able to develop my skills in a motivating atmosphere where the employees trust each other.

Recent Projects

- Website of "Muzyczni Oprawcy" band — Repository Link

A website created for a Polish band I am cooperating with. You can check it out here: www.muzycznioprawcy.pl Used technologies: HTML, CSS, JS

- QuestStore (Codecool Project) — Repository Link

A full stack Web application written mainly in Java including created in teams of 4 people during 6 sprints.

- My portfolio in Django — Repository Link

One of my first projects using Django framework. Technologies used: Python, Django, Git, Bootstrap

Interesting Things About Me

I've been playing the violin for many years in various bands experimenting with different kinds of music ;) I love travelling and learning new languages(programming and foreign languages) as well as new cultures. That's why I spent some time working as an au pair in France and then Italy.
